

Exploring Social Justice Movements through Film
Ethnic Studies 87
Freshman Seminar
Spring Quarter 2008

Professor: David N. Pellow

Office: Social Science Building 229

Mailbox: Department of Ethnic Studies, SSB 201

E-mail: dpellow@ucsd.edu

Phone: (858) 822-5118 Fax: (858) 534-8194

Office Hours: Monday 2:30-4:30pm and Wednesday 11am-12noon

Class Meets: Mondays, 1-2:30pm

Course Description: This seminar focuses on some of the most important and explosive issues that have arisen from social justice movements in the 20th and 21st centuries. Students will be expected to view and discuss several films on the subjects of resistance movements and grassroots politics.

Films:

Eyes on the Prize

Chicano!

Salt of the Earth

This is What Democracy Looks Like

Shocking and Awful

NO!

Maquilapolis

The Story of Stuff

Rivers for Life

Who Killed Vincent Chin?

Yuri Kochiyama: Passion for Justice