Join the Ethnic Studies Department faculty, students, staff and alumni at

“Popular Culture, Sex Trafficking, and Razor Wire Women”

A BOOK TALK AND RECEPTION

Monday, October 17; 3:00-5:00pm at

The Dugout Annex Conference Room (near RIMAC)

Featured books and authors:

Razor Wire Women: a collection of essays and art by scholars, artists and activists both in and out of prison that reveals the many dimensions of how incarceration shapes women's lives

Co-edited by: Ashley E. Lucas (MA '03, PhD '06, UCSD Ethnic Studies and Theatre and Drama), Assistant Professor at the University of North Carolina and Jodie Michelle Lawston (MA '03, PhD '06 UCSD Sociology), Associate Professor of Women’s Studies at California State University San Marcos.

Trafficking Women’s Human Rights: In the book, Hua maps the ways in which government, media, and scholarship have described sex trafficking for U.S. consumption

Written by: Julietta Hua, (MA '02, PhD '06, UCSD Ethnic Studies), Assistant Professor of Women and Gender Studies at San Francisco State University

Refreshments will be served. RSVP to Lexi Killoren at l.killoren@ucsd.edu.
Include name, UCSD affiliation, and grad year or anticipated grad year (if applicable).

Co-sponsored by:

[Images of logos for UC San Diego Critical Gender Studies, Department of Sociology, and UCSD Alumni]